MEDICINAL.

VEGETINE.
HER OWN WORDS.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 13th, 1877.—Mr. H. R. Stevens: Dear Sir—Since several years I have had a sore and very painful foot. I had some physicians, but they could not cure me. Now I have heard of your Vegetine from a lady who was sick for a long time, and became all well from your Vegetine, and after I had used one bottle, the pains left me, and I began to heal, and then I bought one other bottle, and so I take it. I thank God for this remedy and your self, and wishing every sufferer may pay attention to it. It is a blessing for health.
Mrs. C. KRADE, 638 West Baltimore st.

VEGETINE
SAFE AND SURE.

Mr. H. R. Stevens: In 1872 your Vegetine was recommended to me, and, yielding to the persuasions of a friend, I consented to try it. At the time I was suffering from general debility and nervous prostration, superinduced by overwork and irregular habits. Its wonderful strengthening and curative properties seemed to act upon my debilitated system from the first dose; and under its persistent use I rapidly recovered, gaining more than usual health and good feeling. Since then I have not hesitated to give Vegetine my most unqualified endorsement, as being a safe, sure and powerful agent in promoting health and restoring the wasted system to new life and energy. Vegetine is the only medicine I use; and as long as I live I never expect to find a better. Yours truly,
W. H. CLARK, 120 Monterey st.,
Allegheny, Pennsylvania.

VEGETINE
THE BEST SPRING MEDICINE.

Charlestown—H. R. Stevens: Dear Sir—This is to certify that I have used your "Blood Preparation" in my family for several years, and think that for Scrophulous or Cancerous Humors, and Rheumatic Affections it cannot be excelled; and as a blood purifier and spring medicine it is the best thing I have ever used, and I have used almost everything. I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine.
Yours respectfully,
Mrs. A. A. DINSMORE, 19 Russell st.

VEGETINE
WHAT IS NEEDED.

Boston, Feb. 13th, 1871.—H. R. Stevens, esq.: Dear Sir—About one year since I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility. Vegetine was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefited by its use. I procured the article, and, after using several bottles, was restored to health, and discontinued its use. I feel quite confident that there is no medicine superior to it for those complaints for which it is especially prepared, and would cheerfully recommend it to those who feel that they need something to restore them to perfect health. Respectfully yours,
U. L. PETTINGILL,
Firm of S. M. Pettingill & Co.,
No. 10 State street, Boston.

VEGETINE.
ALL HAVE OBTAINED RELIEF.

South Berwick, Me., Jan. 17th, 1872.—H. R. Stevens, esq.—Dear Sir: I have had dyspepsia in its worst form for over three years, and have taken hundreds of dollars' worth of medicine without obtaining any relief. In September last I commenced taking the Vegetine, since which time my health has steadily improved. My food digests well, and I have gained fifteen pounds. There are several others in this place taking Vegetine, and all have obtained relief. Yours truly,
THOMAS E. MOORE,
Overseer of Card Room,
Portsmouth Co's. Mills.

DAIRY SUPPLIES

Perfect Milk Pail.
PAIL, MILK STOOL AND STRAINER IN ONE.
Cannot be kicked over nor knocked over by the cow; the "cow" is entirely prevented from dirt or foul air can affect the milk.

The pail holds 11 quarts; its cover makes a seat for the milker; the funnel which receives the milk is supported by a rubber tube which returns it to its position. It is moved by kicks or blows from the cow. A strainer is placed in the lower end of the tube. Any impurity falling upon or into the funnel can at once be removed and the funnel or the strainer cleaned. The height of the funnel gauged to suit different cows.

The "animal odors" and evil flavors in milk are in a great part due to dirt falling into it, as well as to the exposure of the milk during the milking to the atmosphere of the stable. Nothing absorbs odors quicker than milk.

PRICE $2.00.

Only a Little Babe.
BY TICS, BERNARD CRYSTAL.

[A short time ago a little babe was found dead in one of the upper rooms of a tenement house in New York. Its little face, pinched with starvation, wore a sad look of supplication, while its shrunken form bore mute evidence of the grim wraith which had taken the unasked gift of being.]

Only a little babe,
Slowly starved to death,
For lack of food and tender care,
For want of warmth and light and air—
Slowly starved to death.

Only a little babe,
Lying there so still,
With pleading face so wan and pinched,
With tiny fingers tightly clinched—
Lying there so still.

Only a little babe,
Lying there so cold,
Without one playing earthly friend,
With no one's ear its couch to bend—
Lying there so cold.

Only a little babe,
One of God's precious gems,
Has gone to those bright realms above,
Where all is joy and light and love—
One of God's precious gems.

A Lady's Wonderful Nerve.
A correspondent of the Hartford Times says:

"Mrs. Isadore Middleton, a very beautiful woman, and one of the acknowledged leaders of fashion in Mobile,
